The Centaurs Daughter Watersmeet Series

The Centaur's Daughter by Ellen Jensen Abbott is a great follow up to Watersmeet. The battles and adventures of the centaurs, fawns, and other folks kept me riveting until the final page. I look forward to the third novel in this series. flag Like · see review

The Centaur's Daughter (Watersmeet, #2) by Ellen Jensen Abbott

Gr 7–10— Seventeen-year-old Abisina knows that the people in her adopted village, Watersmeet, are starving and that the danger from überwolves and minotaurs is high. As a result, the Keeper refuses entry to refugees from the restrictive south, where people believe beings other than humans with unblemished light skin and hair are demons.
